

Please do not further deregulate media ownership. Voters in a democracy need to have many sources of information, rather than a consolidated few. Thank you for your attention to this public education requirement.